

LIBECO·LAGAE™

*Belgian Linen Weavers
since 1858*

From June 24th until September 3rd the SIDEWALKcatwalk event is taking place in the heart of New York City's Fashion District. During this event 30 mannequins are displayed "runwaystyle" down Broadway, from Times Square to Herald Square. This installation showcases the vitality and creative spirit of 30 top fashion designers in a unique outdoor setting free to the public all summer long.

Libeco-Lagae contributed to this public art exhibit by offering one of our high quality Belgian linen fabrics to designer Adam Lippes. We're anxious to see what Adam created with our linens and we will be happy to share some images soon with you.

In his own business since 2004, Lippes began his career at Polo Ralph Lauren before moving on to Oscar de la Renta, where he became worldwide creative director. In 2007, Vanity Fair named him to "The Next Establishment".

That same year he opened his first freestanding boutique in the Meatpacking District. He now has two more in Pennsylvania and one in Buffalo, his hometown. In addition to his own men's and women's collections, Lippes designs limited edition collections, Adam for Mango, available in 1,000 Mango stores worldwide.
