FALL / WINTER COLLECTION 2020

PRESS RELEASE SEPTEMBER 2020 - For immediate release

Note from our designer

A SEASON OF CHANGE

We photographed our original September 2020 collection on March 9, outside in the wind and the rain, on the grounds of a beautiful old property. For 10 hours, we slugged around in mud, enduring loads of rain, but the photos turned out terrific despite all of it. Then, a few days later came the Corona lockdown, and life as we all know it, changed in the blink of an eye. Therefore, we decided to re-think our plan for the new collection. Was it time to do big and bold, or was it time go back to basics? We will never know what the right decision was, but we decided that this is a simpler time, and it calls for simple things. So here we are with a small collection of basics, and next year we will do big and bold! Being in lockdown for all of these months has made us think of some of the places we would like to see, or see again, and this process inspired the names. All that being said, we hope that everyone is finding their new normal, and is going forward, one step at a time. Perhaps this small collection is a little bit of light after a lot of darkness.
